Location

Hilton Antwerp is located in a fine historic building, listed for its outstanding architectural importance. The hotel is situated on the Groenplaats, which was landscaped by Napoleon Bonaparte at the beginning of the 19th century, with the planting of 121 lime trees. Today many delightful street cafes are to be found overlooking the charming square. Beyond the lobby doors lies the city's finest shopping boulevard, the Meir and numerous landmarks such as the fully restored Gothic Cathedral. The financial and old harbour districts are only a short walk away. Hilton Antwerp's elegance and its commitment to exceptional standards of service make it an ideal choice for both business and leisure.
